The lifespans of Brahmā and the gods of the universes born from the pores of the divine body of Mahā-Viṣṇu last for only one exhalation of Mahā-Viṣṇu; And Mahā-Viṣṇu is the portion of a portion of the Primeval Lord, Govinda, who I do worship.

Śrī Brahma-saṁhitā (5.48)

Lord Visnu reclines on the bed of Anantadev, the Divine Serpent. The Goddess of Fortune, Lakshmidēvi serves His lotus feet and the universal creator, Lord Brahma is born of the lotus from Sri Visnu's navel.

Lord Nityānanda told Śrī Jīva, “Being a great paṇḍita, Vāsudeva scrutinized the scriptures and thus clearly understood that during the reign of Vaivasvata Manu, at the beginning of Kali-yuga, Lord Gaurāṅga would manifest His pastimes at Nadia. The sages kept this secret, but they indicated by hints so that intelligent men could understand. After the Lord manifested His pastimes on earth, the scriptural evidences would also become clear. Thus the brāhmaṇa received the hint about the secret truths of Gaura.”

“In great bliss, the brāhmaṇa performed saṅkīrtana. He constantly sang the Name of Gaura within his mind. After seeing the mountainous form of Varāha, Vāsudeva carefully decided to call this place Koladvīpa Parvata [kola-boar; parvata-mountain], but it is now known as Parvata. The devotees know that this is Gīri Govardhana of Vṛndāvana.”

Gajendra, King of the Elephants had been forcefully captured by the crocodile in the water and was feeling acute pain, but when he saw that the Lord Nārāyaṇa, wielding His disc, was coming in the sky on the back of Garuḍa, he immediately took a lotus flower in his trunk, and with great difficulty due to his painful condition, he uttered the following words: "O my Lord, Nārāyaṇa, master of the universe, O Supreme Personality of Godhead, I offer my respectful obeisances unto You."

May that Lord of the cows be satisfied by us. Who is Indra when compared to Kṛṣṇa? Kṛṣṇa is the master of Indra. And yet He has appeared as the master of cows; the Supreme Absolute Truth has accepted a simple position as the keeper of cows. Superficially, He is a mere cowherd boy. But let that cowherd boy, who holds within Him the power to control the whole universe, be satisfied with us. We want to worship that Lord who has taken the humble position of the king of the cows.

“Lord Chaitanya did not advent Himself just to liberate only a few men of India. Rather, His main objective was to emancipate all living entities of all countries throughout the entire universe and preach the Eternal Religion.

Lord Chaitanya says in the Chaitanya-Bhagavat:

“In every town, country and village, My Name will be sung.”

There is no doubt that this unquestionable order will come to pass. Very soon the unparalleled path of Hari-nāma-saṅkirtan will be propagated all over the world.

Oh! For that day when the fortunate English, French, Russian, German and American people will take up banners, mṛdaṅgas and karatāls, amid raised kirttan through their streets and towns. When will that day come?

Oh! For that day when the fair-skinned men from their side will raise up the chanting of Jai Śāchinandana, Jai Śāchinandana ki jai, and join with the Bengali devotees.”

The innermost hankering of every living soul is for Beauty, Love, Affection, and Harmony; not for power, knowledge, or anything else. This is the diagnoses of the whole creation in time and space; their common cause is one. There is only one end—many are not necessary—only one, the one, that very one we want, is a relationship of Divine Love with Kṛṣṇa.
